Top five learning areas

Leadership
Conflict Resolution
Management
Project Management
Communications

At Your Organization

We understand that training programs are most successful when they meet organizational needs, fit within your corporate culture, and address current business challenges. Partner with us to develop a customized learning program for your team.

- Designed for small to large groups from the same organization
- Instruction by industry experts who understand the needs of adult learners
- Practical skills that can be applied directly to your organization
- Results in days, not years

Flexible Ways to Learn

Delivered online, at Western, in your workplace or offsite, our programs are designed to provide educational opportunities that will yield immediate results.

- Half-day Sessions
- 12-Week Programs
- One or Two-day Workshops
- Flexible hours to fit your schedule

Innovative and flexible learning experiences for your organization

WCS.UWO.CA
The single biggest driver of business impact is the strength of an organization’s learning culture.”

Josh Bersin, Principal and Founder of Bersin by Deloitte

High-impact learning cultures outperform their peers in many ways:

- 37% greater employee productivity
- 32% more likely to be first to market
- 34% better response to customer needs
- 58% more likely to have skills to meet future demand

Now is the time to invest in your organization.

Partner with Western Continuing Studies to give your employees the skills, experience and motivation they need to excel while maintaining full-time careers.

Experience the Western Advantage

In an increasingly competitive marketplace, top performing companies understand that a highly skilled workforce is an important strategic advantage.

As leaders in the design and delivery of professional development learning programs, Western Continuing Studies has provided training to businesses and organizations for over 50 years. We will work with you to assess your organization’s learning goals and develop a customized training program that is unique to your learning needs.

At Our Campus

Meet your organization’s learning goals by sending your employees to any of our professional development courses offered year-round.

Our Corporate Learner Portal manages your training program for specific employees, departments or your entire organization.

- Company invoicing so employees do not have to pay out-of-pocket
- Employees receive credit towards certificate programs
- Expertise to assist with course selection

Corporate Discount

Become a Corporate Partner and receive discounts on multiple employee registrations in our professional development courses.
“The single biggest driver of business impact is the strength of an organization’s learning culture.”

Josh Bersin, Principal and Founder of Bersin by Deloitte

At Our Campus

Meet your organization’s learning goals by sending your employees to any of our professional development courses offered year-round.

Our Corporate Learner Portal manages your training program for specific employees, departments or your entire organization.

- Company invoicing so employees do not have to pay out-of-pocket
- Employees receive credit towards certificate programs
- Expertise to assist with course selection

Corporate Discount

Become a Corporate Partner and receive discounts on multiple employee registrations in our professional development courses.

Corporate Learning

Now is the time to invest in your organization.

Partner with Western Continuing Studies to give your employees the skills, experience and motivation they need to excel while maintaining full-time careers.

Experience the Western Advantage

In an increasingly competitive marketplace, top performing companies understand that a highly skilled workforce is an important strategic advantage.

As leaders in the design and delivery of professional development learning programs, Western Continuing Studies has provided training to businesses and organizations for over 50 years. We will work with you to assess your organization’s learning goals and develop a customized training program that is unique to your learning needs.

High-impact learning cultures outperform their peers in many ways:

- 37% greater employee productivity
- 32% more likely to be first to market
- 34% better response to customer needs
- 58% more likely to have skills to meet future demand

Since an increasingly competitive marketplace, top performing companies understand that a highly skilled workforce is an important strategic advantage.

As leaders in the design and delivery of professional development learning programs, Western Continuing Studies has provided training to businesses and organizations for over 50 years. We will work with you to assess your organization’s learning goals and develop a customized training program that is unique to your learning needs.

Experience the Western Advantage

Now is the time to invest in your organization.

Visit corporatelearning.uwo.ca
At Your Organization

We understand that training programs are most successful when they meet organizational needs, fit within your corporate culture, and address current business challenges. Partner with us to develop a customized learning program for your team.

• Designed for small to large groups from the same organization
• Instruction by industry experts who understand the needs of adult learners
• Practical skills that can be applied directly to your organization
• Results in days, not years

Flexible Ways to Learn

Delivered online, at Western, in your workplace or offsite, our programs are designed to provide educational opportunities that will yield immediate results.

Top five learning areas

Leadership
Conflict Resolution
Management
Project Management
Communications

Innovative and flexible learning experiences for your organization

WCS.UWO.CA