UNDERSTANDING WESTERN ART: FROM THE LAST SUPPER TO THE DINNER PARTY
ACLT6235

Course Outline (online)

Description:

Through slide-illustrated lectures, this course will examine great artists from Leonardo da Vinci to Judy Chicago. We will investigate their lives and art in the context of a variety of stylistic periods and geographic regions from the Renaissance to the late 20th Century.

Course Goals:

To familiarize students with the history of art from the 15th-20th centuries, in order to gain a better understanding of, and appreciation for, art’s aesthetic qualities, and its potential to reflect the priorities of any given period.

Course Objectives:

At the completion of this course, the student will be able to name the stylistic periods from the Renaissance to the late 20th century, and identify their main characteristics. The student will also be able to name particular artists from these periods, and recognize their unique stylistic approaches.

Virtual Attendance Requirements:

Students must miss no more than two classes to receive a completion for this course. A grade report can be printed from myWCS.

Code of Student Conduct:

The purpose of the Code of Student Conduct is to define the general standard of conduct expected of students registered at Western University, provide examples of behaviour that constitutes a breach of this standard of conduct, provide examples of sanctions that may be imposed, and set out the disciplinary procedures that the University will follow. For the complete Code of Student Conduct: http://www.uwo.ca/univsec/pdf/board/code.pdf.

Live Lectures: details of the live lectures will be communicated prior to course start.
