

MANAGING CHANGE

BSMG6218

Course Outline (online)

Organizations operate in increasingly dynamic environments where change represents the norm rather than exception. It is important for leaders and organizations to understand how to effectively analyze the need for change and determine the most appropriate strategies for implementation.

This course develops an understanding of change management concepts to assist leaders in making appropriate management decisions affecting future directions of their organizations. The complexities of change present real challenges for managers and leaders and hence challenges for managers and leadership in times of change are also addressed.

Course Objectives

1. Demonstrate advanced understanding of theories of planned change, a range of established change management approaches and their applicability in organizational settings.
2. Assume a leading role in evaluating organizational and behavioural issues that may affect the change process and recommend strategies to combat these issues.
3. Critically analyze organizational issues concerning a change initiative.
4. Formulate and effectively communicate a change initiative strategy for an organization.

Policy on Cheating and Academic Misconduct:

Academic honesty is a cornerstone of conduct at Western University. We cannot have freedom of expression without integrity. Students are responsible for understanding the nature of and avoiding the occurrence of plagiarism and other academic offences; please refer to the section on “Scholastic Offences” in the current University Academic Calendar, or on the web at <http://www.westerncalendar.uwo.ca>. Such offences include plagiarism, cheating on an examination, submitting false or fraudulent assignments or credentials, impersonating a candidate, or submitting for credit in any course any academic work for which credit has previously been obtained or is being sought in another course in this University or elsewhere (without the knowledge and approval of the instructor to whom the work is submitted). Students enrolled in non-degree courses are expected to abide by the University’s code of conduct.

Code of Student Conduct:

The purpose of the Code of Student Conduct is to define the general standard of conduct expected of students registered at Western University, provide examples of behaviour that constitutes a breach of this standard of conduct, provide examples of sanctions that may be imposed, and set out the disciplinary procedures that the University will follow. For the complete Code of Student Conduct: <http://www.uwo.ca/univsec/pdf/board/code.pdf>.

Plagiarism:

All required papers may be subject to submission for textual similarity review to the commercial plagiarism detection software under license to the University for the detection of plagiarism. All papers submitted will be included as source documents in the reference database for the purpose of detecting plagiarism of papers subsequently submitted to the system. Use of the service is subject to the licensing agreement, currently between Western University and Turnitin.com ( <http://www.turnitin.com>).

How often will the instructor communicate with me?

The instructor will reply back within 24 hours of all emails. If you have any questions about the course, please use the course questions discussion forum or contact me via email. More detailed information about office hours and contact information will be provided within the OWL course site.

Policy on Late Assignments:

The late assignment policy entails a 5% per day deduction, including weekends, up to a maximum of 5 days, after which assignments will not be accepted and a grade of zero will be assigned unless documentation for accommodation has been provided in advance.

When will I receive my grades?

Final grades will be available two weeks after the last scheduled day of the course. A grade report can be printed from myWCS.

How do I hand in assignments?

All assignments will be submitted electronically through OWL using the assignment tool. Failure to meet deadlines without the instructor’s written permission will be subject to the late assignment policy. It is the
